

Brighton Seafront Architectural Walk

Dr. Geoffrey Mead

Friday 10 July 2015

8:30am – 10:30am

Meeting Point: Brighton Pier, Brighton, BN2 1TW

This event is sponsored by :

Join well-known Historian and University of Sussex Lecturer, Dr. Geoffrey Mead, on an architectural tour of this area, where he will identify parts of the Seafront which have made Brighton what it is today. The exciting regeneration plans for Brighton Seafront give foresight into how the city of Brighton is likely to evolve in the future. But how much do the past and its historical architecture map today and the future for the city and its Seafront?

Our tour will start at 8:30am at the famous Brighton Pier where we will grab a quick coffee-to-go before we head down to the promenade to discover the history behind our beloved seafront. We shall continue our stroll along the promenade and its pebbles until we reach the Regency Restaurant where we will have a chance for networking and a light breakfast after our walk.
